How does IAIA attract so many people from so many disciplines in 130 countries?
If they get something from it, so might you.

International Association for Impact Assessment

Impact assessment, simply stated, is the identification of future consequences of a current or proposed action. IAIA, simply stated, is the international association for people involved in impact assessment.

Since 1980, IAIA has been bringing together researchers, practitioners and users of the various types of impact assessment from around the world. It includes social, environmental, economic, health, and all other types of impact assessment.

One unique feature of IAIA is our mix of professions. This gives outstanding opportunities for interchanges, which are encouraged in various ways. Our members are university teachers and researchers, national and local government officials, corporate planners and managers, NGOs and public interest advocates, private consultants, policy analysts, and students. They cover the social and some natural sciences.

Membership IAIA has over 2,500 members from over 100 countries. There are active local groups in several countries.

IAIA has strategic partnerships with the World Bank, WHO, the Canadian International Development Agency, the Netherlands Association for Environmental Professionals, the US Council on Environmental Quality, etc.
